Who is...

classroom

Grand Classroom is a travel company that specializes in taking people on educational trips around the world.

Grand Classroom began with trips to our National Parks in 2002 and has grown to include historic U.S. cities and international destinations. Our programs span from Washington, D.C. and New York to the Grand Canyon, Yellowstone, Florida, Puerto Rico, the Pacific Northwest, Galapagos, Belize, Iceland, Costa Rica, and more!

Safety is our main concern...

- ★ 24 Hour Grand Classroom guides
- ★ 24 hour emergency contact number
- ★ On-call telemedicine
- ★ Medical and dental insurance while on tour
- ★ Liability insurance

Traveler Health on Tour

- Travelers will notify Grand Classroom of any medical conditions or dietary concerns prior to travel.
- Grand Classroom will work directly with our vendors to accommodate dietary restrictions.
- Travelers and teachers hold on to and administer any medications while on tour.

FAQs

- What does the trip cost include? It is an all-inclusive price that covers airfare, motor coach, tour guide, lodging, all meals while on tour, activity admissions, medical/dental coverage, and trip planning.
 - How much spending money should I bring? We recommend about $50-$100 for snacks, souvenirs and an optional tip for your Grand Classroom guide.
 - What is the rooming situation? Travelers can stay 2 or 4 to each room.
 - What forms do I need to fill out? You will be sent a medical form and a behavior contract through the Grand Classroom trip page closer to travel. This is where you will note any dietary restrictions or allergies.
